

Free E-Mandarin Courses for Healthcare Providers

Do you know that 70% of the Chinese in the USA prefer a doctor capable of speaking Mandarin? We at the Confucius Institute for Health at SUNY College of Optometry (CIH) are ready to sharpen your language skills and advance your future career. CIH has been offering Chinese language courses with a focus on medical applications since 2012. The 10-week online Mandarin courses are customized for students and faculty working in a healthcare setting. Registration is now open to all in the USA.

Upon completing the program, you will be able to:

- Speak Mandarin with confidence
- Learn key values and concepts of Chinese culture
- Approach and analyze patient cases with cultural awareness
- Win a free two/four - week camp in China
- Explore China through an enlightening experience
